

John Two-Hawks....

Concert Artist

World-class music, lighting and special effects are just the beginning of the John Two-Hawks concert experience. Two-Hawks enchants and amazes audiences across the globe with his powerful music, beautiful dance and inspiring words of wisdom. A fantastic show for the patrons of your theater or performing arts stage! John is also available for brilliant collaborations with symphony orchestras, bands and musical acts and ensembles from nearly any musical genre or style!

Keynote Speaker

John Two-Hawks is a gifted motivational communicator who has served as a keynote speaker and lecturer for conferences and organizations worldwide. John draws from his vast knowledge of Indigenous wisdom to inspire participants with a fresh perspective and offer insight into the purpose we all seek for our life.

Stage and Screen

John Two-Hawks is an award-winning live theater actor who is also no stranger to the movie set. His music is featured in the HBO movie, 'Bury My Heart at Wounded Knee.' A powerful character actor, John earned critical acclaim for his uncanny portrayal of Will Rogers in the Broadway version of 'The Will Rogers Follies'. Mr. Two-Hawks is available as an actor, narrator, film score musician and consultant to professional theaters and motion pictures.

Educator

John Two-Hawks is a seasoned educator, having presented programs for countless universities, public schools and other institutions of learning. Mr. Two-Hawks breaks stereotypes, opens minds, and inspires students young and old to reach for, believe in, and realize, their dreams.

NativeCircle.com

866-444-0940

JohnTwoHawks.com